

EDUARDO PEDREIRA

Vice President of Supply Chain, The Lubrizol Corporation

Eduardo Pedreira is VP of Supply Chain for The Lubrizol Corporation, a Berkshire Hathaway Company. In this role, he is responsible for the foundation for Lubrizol's value stream map and leading the team who manages strategic supply planning, production scheduling, customer service and business partnerships.

Eduardo is multi-culture leader that embraces diversity and talent development. He has an accomplished history as a transformational supply chain and operations leader with over 17 years of experience at PPG Industries. There, he was the Global Resin Business Director, where he led the PPG vertical integration on the resin portfolio, managing the overall strategy including operations, supply chain, procurement, capital investment and technical development.

Prior to that, he held regional and global supply chain roles where he led several organizational improvements, developed talent training program and delivered constant financial performance across multiple business units leveraging the One PPG approach and culture. At PPG, he created the Industrial Segment supply chain organization during COVID lockdown, having to hire, on board and restructure the team simultaneously. He also implemented a full sales, inventory and operations planning (SIOP) roadmap for all four business units from scratch and worked to enhance the planning system to deliver more accurate outputs with less resources, partnering with the continuous improvement organization to standardize it across multiple plants.
